PRAY FOR US AS WE WORK IN VENEZUELA

June 2011

Dear Friends in Christ,

I have my suitcases packed and I am ready to go back to Venezuela. What a blessing it is to know that we are about to arrive at the place where the Lord called us to serve!

I am already getting everything ready for the graduation of the Bible Institute for this year, which will be at the end of June. But there is something that hurts my heart so much and is a heavy burden. There are almost no missionaries that are still in Venezuela. I can count all of them with only one hand. Many have left because of the political problems that have gone on the past few years. Others desire to come to Venezuela but cannot get visas. I need your prayers urgently for this reason. Could you stop what you are doing for just one moment and pray for this need. There is a missionary whom I led to the Lord and trained in our Bible College. He was our co-pastor, music leader, and youth director. He speaks English because he is American and also an excellent Venezuelan Spanish because he grew up in Venezuela, and knows the culture and customs of the country. And best of all and what many missionaries are desiring, he has a visa for Venezuela. Could you pray for him that God will confirm in his heart the calling to Venezuela? His name is Steven Arce, he is my son. I know that God is working in his life and heart about this matter because I have talked with him about this, and he has expressed his desire to go back to Venezuela as a church planter missionary. He has been working the past few years in the ministry of reaching all of South and Central America with teams on short term mission trips. But now he has told us that God is putting a burning desire to start churches in Venezuela. Would you give me a gift of your time and love? If you would just take a moment right now to pray for him and his family that God would confirm His will for his (Steven's) life, and for the great need that Venezuela has right now for missionaries. I appreciate this with all my heart.

Thank you for your faithfulness towards us throughout all these years. May the Lord bless you.
